Startupbootcamp FinTech & CyberSecurity is the first European innovation program combining the industries of Finance and CyberSecurity. Together with our other programs in London, New York, Singapore, Mexico City, and Mumbai, we are a leading investor in the FinTech industry.

About the program

Startupbootcamp's FinTech & CyberSecurity 3-month program leverages years of cumulative experience to guide your company's growth through:

Fine-tuning product/market fit

Workshops and experts will help you determine the perfect product/market fit.

Connecting & Selling

Accessing our network you will collaborate with C-level/senior executives from our corporate partners, and mentors from key organizations. This will enable you to test your product during PoCs, accelerating your traction and experience for further growth.

Investment preparation

Our team and mentors will help you to become investor ready. You will build strong relationships with angel investors and VCs from our network.

Demo Day

Demo Day is the day to celebrate your achievements during the program with 400+ mentors, corporate partners, investors and influencers.

Startupbootcamp NXT

After the program, companies will gain access to our extensive Global Alumni network and special discounts on relevant services throughout the lifetime of the company.

- Note that for scale-ups, we create a separate program that is specifically tailored to your needs.
- In return for the startup or scale-up program participation, we ask for equity ownership.

Partners

The program is lead by industry leaders Michael Dooijes and Elizabeth Kleinveld and is powered by partners. Which include major global brands such as:

By joining, you get:

1. Access to a global network of influencers, mentors, partners, investors, and alumni

"As a fast-growing scale-up, we found participation added real value. The many contacts with corporate sponsors and supporters gave us a much deeper insight into our market, followed by some big wins in the Netherlands." - Andrew Bud, CEO, iProov

2. Corporate startup collaboration

"SBC was a great opportunity to connect with large corporations that have an interest in innovation and working with startups. Being able to reach so many companies in a short time was invaluable." - Quincy Acklen, CEO, Gyomo

"The collaboration between startups and Rabobank allows us to identify potential startups who can help us to design our Proofs-of-concept. It also enables us to bring these startups into our growing network." - Martin de Vries, Information Security Officer, Rabobank

3. Investor network

Some of the investors in our network:

Earlybird VC, Cisco Ventures, HenQ Capital, Mainport Innovation Fund, Index Ventures, 2Square Ventures, EQT Ventures, Volta Ventures, Finch Capital, TIIN Capital, Emery Capital, BlackFin Capital Partners.

4. Exposure through our global events and online channels will put you on the radar of large corporates and VCs. Some of our stats:

- 5 million page views per year
- 1.5 million twitter impressions per year
- 400+ Attendees at Demo Day
- 10+ networking events with corporates and investors per program
